President John F.

[Redacted block]

[Redacted] advised that CARLOS MARCELLO returned to New Orleans after absence from the city this past weekend and his whereabouts when gone unknown to source. Source advised that CARLOS MARCELLO had a dinner party at his home Monday night for some politicians, whose identities source does not know at this time. Source advised that one of the individuals is a candidate for assessor for Jefferson Parish in the upcoming election.

Source also advised that Parish President TOM DONELON and State Senator HANK LAURICELLA had a dinner party at the Elmwood Plantation last Saturday night (this establishment is run by CARLOS' brother JOSEPH) and reportedly this dinner party was free of charge.

Mr. DAVID CHANDLER, representative of Life magazine in the State of Louisiana, advised that CARLOS MARCELLO agreed to pose for pictures for Life cameramen but refused interview until 9/9/67 or 9/10/67 when his attorney, WASSERMAN, can be present to advise. Life reporters have interviewed VINCENT MARCELLO, brother of CARLOS, last week, as well as District Attorney JIM GARRISON, the latter candidly admitting to Life reporters that he was friendly with SAMMY MARCELLO and MARIO MARINO, of Las Vegas. He admitted MARINO arranged for a line of credit in the gambling casino in Las Vegas for GARRISON. GARRISON is now making overtures to the effect that he is going to sue Life if they publish this information.
